

Asian heritage is in full bloom

Join Target & San Francisco as we celebrate Asian Pacific American Heritage Month 2011

For event details visit apasf.org

Experience these exciting events sponsored by TARGET throughout the month of May

Target First Free Sunday

SUN 5.1 @ Asian Art Museum
200 Larkin Street

- Enjoy free general admission to the museum 10am - 5pm*
- Create an artwork inspired by the exhibition, Bali: Art, Ritual, Performance
- Reading and book signing by children's author, Olympic Gold Medalist Kristi Yamaguchi

asianart.org

* Please note that a $5 surcharge applies to the Bali exhibition.

San Francisco APA Heritage Awards

MON 5.2 @ Herbst Theatre,
Veterans War Memorial Building
401 Van Ness

- Ceremony and Community reception begins at 5pm
- Presentation of annual APA Heritage Awards and unique cultural performances
- Community reception featuring spectacular APA ethnic cuisine and beverage

apasf.org

Asian Heritage Street Celebration

SAT 5.21 @ Civic Center

- Two live stages and 7 city blocks of fun and activities for all ages
- Featuring Asian Arts & Crafts Alley, specialty foods, cultural procession and entertainment
- Free general admission to Asian Art Museum

asianfairsf.com

Yerba Buena Gardens Festival

SAT 5.28 @ Esplanade (outdoors)
Mission St. between 3rd & 4th St.

- Free concert featuring the Asian American Orchestra 1 - 2:30pm
- Program: With India and Africa: A Tribute to John Coltrane

ybgf.org

FREE ADMISSION TO ALL